

Scorekeeper's Ten Commandments

Thou shall always face forward, at an angle to the best view the dart and the scoreboard, when possible.

Thou shall not step in the throwing alley before all darts are thrown, unless asked.

Thou shall not announce or suggest a combination to throw to a shooter.

Thou shall always project a fair and neutral disposition when scoring.

Thou shall not announce a score or hit unless asked by shooter.

Thou shall not move or fidget when shooter is at the ochee.

Thou shall not drink while keeping score.

Thou shall not smoke while keeping score.

Thou shall not eat while keeping score.

Thou shall not carry on a conversation when keeping score.
